DETAILED ACTION

This is a first office action on the merits of patent application S. N. 10/690,407.

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 6 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is unclear if the "RPM" recited in lines 12 and 14 refers to the RPM of the prime mover or another element of the vehicle.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3681

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Schmitz et al. ('619).

Schmitz et al. discloses a wheeled motor vehicle (Fig. 3) comprising a prime mover (31), a transmission (33), a clutch (32), control means for preventing overrevving (Col. 1, lines 64-67), means for effecting disengagement of the clutch of slip (4, 10, 11), threshold value (20) which is a function of engine speed (Col. 6) and a signal denoting a shift in the ratio of the transmission (2).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Schmitz et al. ('619).

Schmitz discloses the claimed invention except for the preselected RPM. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to preselect 200 RPM as the value for shifting the transmission, since it has been held that discovering an optimum value of a result effective variable involves only routine skill in the art. In re Boesch, 617 F.2d 272, 205 USPQ 215 (CCPA 1980).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 2 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Shygyo (134), Hoshiya et al. ('768), Darnell ('585), and Hasegawa et al. ('318) disclose other clutch control systems comprising means for preventing over-revving.
